COOKIE POLICY

Security of Your Information

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to American Fundstars Financial Group LLC (“we,” “us,” or “our”) employees who need to know that information to service your account. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable federal or state standards to protect your nonpublic personal information.

How do we protect your information?

We do not use vulnerability scanning and/or scanning to PCI standards. We only provide articles and information. We never request credit card numbers through our website. We do not use Malware Scanning. We do not use an SSL certificate.

Do we use ‘cookies’?

Yes. Cookies are small files that a website or its service provider transfers to your computer’s hard drive through your web browser (if users allow) that enable the site’s or service provider’s systems to recognize users’ browsers and capture and remember certain information. Cookies are used to help us understand your preferences based on previous or current site activity, which enables us to provide users with improved services. We also use cookies to help us compile aggregate data about site traffic and site interaction so we can offer better site experiences and tools in the future.

By visiting our website, third parties may place cookies on users’ browsers for targeted advertising purposes.

We use cookies to:

- Understand and save user’s preferences for future visits.
- Compile aggregate data about site traffic and site interactions in order to offer better site experiences and tools in the future. We may also use trusted third-party services that track this information on our behalf.
- Cookies may also be used by third parties to target advertising on other sites based on users’ online activity.

You can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies through your browser settings. Since every browser is a little different, look at your browser’s Help Menu to learn the correct way to modify your cookies.

If you turn cookies off, some of our site features will be disabled. It will not affect your experience in any noticeable way.
